

Volunteer at Wolterton

Interested in history, art, music, or food? Would you consider volunteering at Norfolk's best kept secret, Wolterton, a stunning stately home situated in the heart of the North Norfolk countryside?

Wolterton is a privately owned Georgian historic house which will be opening its gates to the public, for the first time, this summer with its inaugural Art Exhibition accompanied by a series of Operas, plays and dining experiences.

We are looking to build a team of fun, responsible and positive volunteers to help us host and steward these events. If you would like to know more, please email volunteer@wolterton.co.uk to register your interest.

We will be hosting a Volunteer Open Morning at 11am on Saturday 17th May. Please join us to hear further details and where we will show you around the hall and supply copious amounts of tea and biscuits!
