

ATTLEBOROUGH WI

Newsletter March/April 2020

Hello everyone

Well, today we should have had our meeting, instead I thought I'd send you another newsletter (a poor substitute, do I hear you thinking!). But it comes with my and all the Committee's very best wishes to you all to keep well, keep safe, and keep in touch.

Caroline Li Rocchi passed away on 18 March. Caroline was a much loved member of our WI for the past five years and a good friend to many of us. She will be hugely missed.

Virtual Coffee Club

Are you on Facebook Messenger? Fancy joining us for coffee on Tuesday mornings at 11am? This is a video conference call where a group of people may chat and see each other (just like Skype).

Seven of us had a lovely chat this Tuesday. If you'd like to be added to the group, message/email me.

Police have asked the public to be on the look out for this suspicious-looking lady with something to hide outside the supermarket

Attleborough Library

The library closed its doors on 21 March. Quite a blow for me - for us all, I'm sure - until I learned about the Norfolk Library link to Libby - an on-line ebook and e-audio book facility. I downloaded the "Overdrive" Libby app (very easy) and hey presto, lots of books available to borrow and read, in my case, on my Kindle. Definitely recommend it.

Craft... Craft... Craft ..

Want to make Chinese Wave Knitted Dishcloth? Course you do. Call Betty for the pattern (then, when you've made it, send us a photo 😊)

And finally, if anyone needs any help, with anything at all, please call me.

If you just want a chat then call me (451848)
