Creative Writing Competition 2021

The Communication Sub-Committee invites you to submit a piece for the Norfolk Federation Writing Competition 2021. The winner will be presented with her award at the Federation Annual Meeting in 2022.

The title/theme is Change

You may develop your piece, using this theme/title as the prompt and promoting the good name of the WI, in any style/genre you choose, fact or fiction. However, it should be presented anonymously. Names and identifying details should be changed to protect the privacy of individuals.

Please ensure that you adhere to the following schedule (only those entries that do so will proceed to judging)

- A short story or article that is entirely your own work on the theme above, to be told in 650 words
- Your submission may be typed, emailed or handwritten. Please number the pages and add the word count at the end.
- To be submitted to Federation Office, 45, All Saints Green, Norwich NR1 3LY with an entry fee of 2 per script, payable to Norfolk Federation of WIs (NFWI)
- Do not put your name on the script itself, but attach a covering sheet with your name, address, phone and/or email contact, and the name of your WI. Include a sae if you want the script returned by post.
- Closing date Tuesday 1st October 2021.
- The Norfolk Federation Writing Competition Trophy will be presented to the winner at the Federation Annual Meeting in 2022.
- Winner and runners-up will be asked to allow publication in the Magazine, or online

The judges will be looking for a piece which

- Hooks the reader into it quickly, with enough telling details and appropriate vocabulary to bring it alive
- Is a satisfying read, with a clear plot or point
- Paints a picture with words
- Is well-presented, layout and word count as requested above, with acceptable spelling and punctuation

Good Luck with your entries!
